

House Officer Salaries And Benefits 2011-2012

Benefits

1. Twenty working days paid vacation.
2. Professional leave with pay for approved meetings
3. Sick leave – six months accrual after two years employment.
4. Comprehensive group health coverage.
5. Low-rate automatic eligibility disability coverage available.
6. Four lab coats provided at university expense at the beginning of residency.
7. Laundering of lab coats provided.
8. $100 appropriation to department for house officer education.
9. Travel money for residents investigating practice locations in Nebraska.
10. Reimbursement for travel to and from required training sites more than 25 miles from the Medical Center.
11. Preferential eligibility for parking.
12. Evening and breakfast meal allowance while on call at the Nebraska Medical Center.
13. $5.50 meal card per day provided by the Nebraska Medical Center.
14. Liability coverage for moonlighting with advance approval from Program Director and Office of Graduate Medical Education.

House Officer Salaries for 2011-2012

HO I	$50,104
HO II	$51,959
HO III	$54,077
HO IV	$56,005
HO V	$57,966
HO VI	$59,836
HO VII	$62,859
HO VIII	$66,003
HO IX	$69,301
HO X	$72,443