

1940s

RUTH R. ANDERSON N'40

North Bend, Ore., is retired with the exception of 2-3 hours a week that she gives medication to county mental health outpatients. After her husband, Elmer, died, she moved to Evergreen Court, an independent retirement facility.

MARJORIE L. WOLTEMADE-ANTHONY N'46

Columbus, Ind., reports that her son, Jeff, died in November 2007 at age 51.

GERALDINE L. OTTO N'48 AND MERLE L. OTTO M'52

Naples, Fla., sold their Marco Island home and moved to a life care facility in Naples.

DORIS M. BRODRICK N'48

Rapid City, S.D., hopes to visit Omaha in 2009 for a China painters' convention.

ARDITH L. STICKMAN N'48

Ft. Collins, Colo., retired after 30 years of service in veterans hospitals.

Virginia Tilden, D.N.Sc., dean of the College of Nursing, visits with Gladys Sorensen, GND, '45, in Arizona during the UNMC Alumni Valley in the Sun event.

1950s

RACHEL BAYLESS N'50

Lubbock, Texas, has four grown children and has adopted one child. She and her husband, Samuel, moved from their home in Altus to an apartment in Lubbock.

GEORGE P. POST M'50

Bridgeport, Neb., has been in practice for 45 years. He and his wife, Emarie, have six children, four of whom are in the medical field. They have been married 59 years.

Willis Maddrey, M.D., University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center in Dallas, was this year's John S. Latta Lecturer. Dr. Maddrey gave his presentation during the Alumni Opening Celebration of the Sorrell Center. He is pictured with John Gollan, M.D., Ph.D., left, dean of the College of Medicine, and Michael Sorrell, M.D., '59.

JOHN R. FINKNER M'52

Minden, Neb., retired after 50 years from family practice in 2003. He has been married to his wife Phyllis for 59 ½ years. Dr. Finkner and his wife have four children, 13 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren. He has one son and one granddaughter who are medical graduates of UNMC.

JEAN A. MOLDE N'52

Reno, Nev., says of the 24 surviving members of the class of 1952, seven of them enjoyed their 55th anniversary reunion in October 2007.

RICHARD M. PITSCH M'53

Seward, Neb., has retired after 40 years of practicing medicine.

BARBARA J. MOSS N'55

Lincoln, Neb., has been retired since 1995.

ELIZABETH D. CLARK N'55

Danville, Calif., is retired from nursing, but runs a real estate business.

E. GENE BIEVER M'58

Pine Ridge, S.D., is retired, but has worked at the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation full time for the past 16 years.

MARILYN J. PETERSEN N'58

Santa Clara, Calif., is retired. She and her husband, Charles, have 10 grandchildren.

RUTH A. KIEKHAEFER N'59

Saint Joseph, Mo., is on an eight-year medical mission to Jamaica (Black River Saint Elizabeth area) and West India.

1960s

HOWARD F. KOCH M'61

Alliance, Neb., retired from private practice in the summer of 2007. He was a pediatrician in Alliance for the past 15 years and a member of the United States Air Force for 17 years, where he worked with adolescent blood diseases and malignancies. He will continue to serve as medical director for Human Services Inc., a treatment facility for substance abuse.

BEN RUBIN JR. M'61

Kansas City, Mo., is still working full time at almost 71 years.

ROBERT F. HAMILTON M'63

Godfrey, Ill., was re-elected to the Illinois State Medical Society Board of Trustees recently. He was president of the Madison County Medical Society in 1979, 2002 and 2003, although he has been a member since 1973. A retired general and vascular surgeon, he has lectured and written extensively in support of the medical savings account concept for national health insurance reform.

CALVIN J. HOBEL M'63

Palos Verdes Estates, Calif., is an investigator for the Los Angeles Ventura County National Children's Study, which follows a cohort of 5,000 children from before birth to age 21.

DONALD D. BELL M'64

Norfolk, Neb., is employed at Faith Regional Health Services.

PATSY L. HAWKINS N'64

Cary, N.C., retired from nursing, but works as a health sciences admissions advisor at a community college.

WILLIAM E. LUNDAK M'64

Lincoln, Neb., retired in January 2008 after 35 years with Radiology Associates P.C., a private practice in Lincoln.

MYRNA C. NEWLAND M'64 AND JAMES R. NEWLAND M'65

Omaha, Neb., have made three teaching trips to Afghanistan. He is retired and she is director of the equity office at UNMC. Of their three children, one is a physician in Arizona, another works for Public Health Services in Washington D.C., and the other is studying architecture in Boston.

KEITH W. SHUEY M'64

Tecumseh, Neb., practices in the same office he started in 1966. He still runs his farm and cattle operation and collects antique John Deere Tractors and memorabilia.

PHILIP G. ROSENE M'65

Georgetown, Mass., retired in 2004 after 36 years of practice as an anesthesiologist, 33 years of which he spent at Anna Jacques Hospital in Newbury Port, Mass. He enjoys hunting, fishing, and competitive target shooting and was the National Naval Reserve pistol champion in 1985.

WILLIAM L. HOEVET M'67

Worthington, Minn., is five years into retirement after practicing ophthalmology in Worthington for 30 years. He and his wife, Judi, travel to visit their children and grandchildren. He also does volunteer work and searches for antiques and collectibles.

WILLIAM J. EICHNER M'68

Weybridge, Vt., and his wife, Julia, started a coffee farm in the Dominican Republic that includes educational components for literacy and agriculture.

DAN W. HUGHES P'68

Tucson, Ariz., retired in August 2007.

RENEE A. CARLSON N'69

Lee's Summit, Mo., and her husband, Gregory, are both retired. She volunteers as a court appointed special advocate and is a board member for Westport Cooperative Services.

STUART P. EMBURY M'69

Holdrege, Neb., retired from family practice in July of 2006. He is on a five-week assignment in Klawock, Alaska, and also works part time as a chief medical officer.

STEPHEN M. NIELSEN M'69

Omaha, Neb., retired in 2007.

1970s

EDWARD A. HOLYOKE JR. M'70

Omaha, Neb., is working part time at Menards in the electrical department. He is an organist at Christ Community Church.

SUSAN A. MARTIN N'70 AND *RICHARD A. MARTIN M'71

Cape Girardeau, Mo., have lived in Cape Girardeau for 30 years. They have four children and five grandchildren.

STEPHAN K. WOODMAN M'70 AND MARGERY WOODMAN N'69

Grand Island, Neb., retired in 2007 from the Grand Island Radiology Association. He began teaching radiology residents part time as an associate professor. They enjoy being grandparents.

RICHARD J. DOYLE P'71

Sterling, Colo., was the 2007 Board of Pharmacy president and welcomed his sixth grandchild in April 2008.

KENNETH D. HATCH M'71

Tucson, Ariz., was elected president of The Society of Pelvic Surgeons, an international organization of gynecology oncologists, urologists and colorectal surgeons.

BARBARA J. HURLBERT M'71 AND MERLE T. MCALEVY M'71

Omaha, Neb., are happy to report their daughter is completing her residency at Penn State in anesthesiology and will join her mother in the department of anesthesia at The Nebraska Medical Center.

MARY C. RAYMER N'71

Slidell, La., earned her doctorate in health care administration from Capella University in April 2007.

Jim Beins, '71, of York, Neb., presents Courtney Fletcher, Pharm.D., dean of the College of Pharmacy, with a pill box that read: Fletcher Pharmacy. Dr. Fletcher met with alumni in May during a two-day tour across Nebraska.

GEORGE M. ADAM M'72

Hastings, Neb., serves as medical staff president-elect of Mary Lanning Hospital.

ANDREA S. HAZEN PT'72

Omaha, Neb., is operations director of Rehab Services at Bergan Mercy Medical Center. She has been married to Gage Hazen for 38 years. They have three children and four grandchildren.

ELIZABETH MILBRANDT N'76

Clayton, Mo., works part time as a school nurse. She and her husband, Jeffrey, have three children.

CLARK W. ANDERSON P'73

Ogallala, Neb., has been appointed to the Nebraska Coordinating Commission for Postsecondary Education by Gov. Dave Heineman.

SANDRA J. KINSELLA N'74

Omaha, Neb., retired from nursing and volunteers at an adult day care facility. She and her husband, Mick, have three children and five grandchildren.

ROGER J. PENTZIEN M'74

Omaha, Neb., recently returned to Omaha and assumed a medical director position at Alegent Health Bergan Mercy and Lasting Hope Recovery Center.

ALAN S. SEIFER M'74

Miami, Fla., is a tournament physician for the Sony Erickson Tennis Open.

STEVEN F. WEBSTER M'74

Lafayette, Calif., was elected president of the San Francisco Surgical Society for 2008.

STEPHEN D. TORPY M'74

Omaha, Neb., was a general and vascular surgeon until he opened Totally Vein, a surgical practice treating varicose vein problems. His wife, Jackie, works as a nurse in the facility. The couple has five children.

ANDY ANTONISKIS M'75

Damascus, Ore., retired from internal medicine practice in September 2007. He was elected a fellow in the American Society of Addiction Medicine and is finishing his term as immediate past president of the Oregon Medical Association.

C J LABENZ M'75

Omaha, Neb., retired from OB/GYN practice in 2007.

ROBERT G. SPANHEIMER M'75

Lake Bluff, Ill., has been named senior medical director at Takeda Global Research and Development Center Inc. He has more than 20 years of experience in the clinical setting. While at the University of Iowa, he was an associate professor for internal medicine.

GENE F. STOHS M'75

Lincoln, Neb., has been chief of staff at Bryan Lincoln General Hospital for the past two years.

JAMES C. CASSELL N'76

La Crosse, Wis., is working as a physician assistant doing contract work. He recently completed an eight-month contract on Midway Atoll NWR, an island 1,200 miles west of Hawaii.

FREDRICK A. MCCURDY M'76

Amarillo, Texas, spent the past four years as chairman of pediatrics in Amarillo. Recently, he was appointed regional associate dean for faculty development at the Regional Campus in Amarillo and assistant dean for curriculum evaluation at the School of Medicine in Lubbock. He also was granted tenure at Texas Tech University School of Medicine.

DONNA J. MIDDAGH N'76

Little Rock, Ark., was selected as associate dean for service at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences, College of Nursing.

MARVIN R. BECK PT'77

Omaha, Neb., owned and operated N.E. Missouri Rehabilitation Association Inc. from 1985 to 1997. He became manual therapy certified and received his master's of physical therapy in 2003 at the University of St. Augustine.

JOEL D. ELSON M'77

Omaha, Neb., practices interventional and diagnostic radiology at Lakeside Hospital in Omaha.

TERRI G. MONK M'77

Durham, N.C., is a professor in the department of anesthesiology at Duke University Medical Center in Durham. In May, she was presented with the 2008 Alumni Achievement Award at Wayne State College's spring graduation, where she delivered the commencement address.

JAMES R. O'DELL M'77

Omaha, Neb., joined UNMC in 1984 and is chief of rheumatology. He was named one of UNMC's Distinguished Scientists for 2007 and also received the Internal Medicine Career Excellence Research Award for 2008. He shares ownership of two clothing boutiques, Omaha-be yourself and The Giving Tree, with his daughters. He enjoys swimming and woodworking. He and his wife, Deb, have three children.

EDWIN C. SCHAFFER M'77

Omaha, Neb., works at The Nebraska Medical Center and operates a new medical tool called the SpyGlass Camera, which is the thickness of a human hair and helps patients avoid having invasive surgery for removal of large gallstones. It also helps diagnose bile and liver conditions.

JANET E. CUDDIGAN N'78

Elkhorn, Neb., received an Outstanding Teacher Award at UNMC earlier this year.

RAY E. HERSHBERGER M'78

Coral Gables, Fla., is the 2008 Alpha Omega Alpha (AOA) Distinguished Speaker and also one of the nation's leaders in congestive heart failure and cardiac transplantation. He has been continuously funded by the National Institutes of Health since 1992 and is internationally known for his efforts on familial dilated cardiomyopathies. Dr. Hershberger is being inducted into the Nebraska Chapter of AOA this year.

JODY D. WOODWORTH CLS'78

Omaha, Neb., has been with Clarkson College for more than 11 years serving as dean of health care business and allied health. She recently was promoted to vice president of academic affairs.

1980s

JOHN T. MILLER M'80

Kansas City, Mo., recently spoke on high altitude illness at a Mayo Clinic meeting in Vail, Colo. He and his wife, Jacelyn, recently celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary.

LINDA K. SATHER N'80

Bellevue, Neb., is director of the Mobile Nursing Center and assistant professor in the UMNC College of Nursing. She recently received the UNMC Spirit of Community Service Award.

DEBRA J. TAYLOR PA'80

Lincoln, Neb., teaches and works as an advocate for women in OB/GYN.

SANDY L. BRANDL N'81

Mesa, Ariz., works on-call at Scottsdale Healthcare in the Outpatient Infusion Services Department. She and her husband, Mike, have four children and have been married 28 years.

CAROL A. DRAKE M'81

Omaha, Neb., loves ophthalmology – everything from pediatric cataract procedures to Botox. She has four children, two of whom are still at home.

VANCE R. JERNSTROM M'81

Omaha, Neb., completed his residency in otolaryngology head and neck surgery at the University of Kansas Medical Center and a fellowship in plastic and reconstructive surgery of the face at the University of Illinois, Saint Joseph Hospital in Chicago.

John Gollan, M.D., Ph.D., dean of the College of Medicine, Ron Caniglia, M.D., '87, and his wife, Bonnie, and Roseanne Gollan enjoy the UNMC Alumni Valley in the Sun reception in Scottsdale, Ariz.

ANN M. BERGER N'84

Omaha, Neb., recently was appointed the Dorothy Hodges Olsen Chair in Nursing at the UNMC College of Nursing. She is an expert in breast cancer treatment and fatigue and the principal investigator of a five-year grant to test new ways to reduce fatigue in breast cancer patients.

MARIANNE K. CAMPBELL N'84

Omaha, Neb., was nominated for RN Medical Staff recognition by Edward Fehringer, M'95, in March 2008. Dr. Fehringer says that Marianne is tireless in her efforts and he cannot thank her enough for all her hard work in maintaining an efficient work environment.

JULIE M. VOSE M'84

Omaha, Neb., is the Neumann M. and Mildred E. Harris Professor and chief of the section of hematology/oncology at UNMC. Her work targets translational research to improve treatment of non-Hodgkins lymphoma. She recently began a two-year term on the Nebraska Chapter of Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's Board of Trustees.

VICTOR T. WILSON M'84

Norman, Okla., practices solo pediatrics in Norman. His wife, Pamela, teaches at the University of Texas at Dallas.

DENISE M. GRAHAM P'86

Orange Park, Fla., is the director of clinical support services at a Naval hospital in Jacksonville, Fla., with pharmacy, laboratory, radiology, physical therapy, occupational therapy and clinical nutrition under her supervision.

MARK W. MULKEY M'86

Mason City, Iowa, received the North Iowa Mercy Golden Heart Award for exceptional patient service. He serves as director of operating rooms and is on the board of the Mason City Clinic.

MARK S. SYNOVEC M'86

Auburn, Kan., has been appointed by the American Medical Association Board of Trustees to serve a four-year AMA-CPT editorial panel position.

NORMA J. WELSH N'87

Omaha, Neb., is retired.

NICHOLAS Y. LORENZO M'88

Omaha, Neb., is a neurology consultant. He founded a company called Pearlsreview, which provides online nursing continuing education and courses. His father, Agapito Lorenzo M.D., continues to serve on the UNMC faculty in the department of neurological sciences.

SCOTT PLANTZ M'88

St. Petersburg, Fla., is an emergency medical physician in St. Petersburg. He established eMedicine.com, an online medical service, with Nicholas Lorenzo, M'88.

1990s

*DONNA J. FRANKE N'90

Deland, Fla., earned her master's of science degree in criminal justice in 1998 from the University of Central Florida. She is the forensic state coordinator for Volusia and Flagler counties in Florida.

*DOUGLAS MARTIN M'91

Sioux City, Iowa, became president of the Iowa Academy of Family Physicians in October 2007. He serves as the medical director for St. Luke's Center for Occupational Health Excellence and was awarded the Mead Johnson Award for Graduate Education in Family Medicine, an award given to the top 20 family practice residents in the nation. He and his wife, Janet, have four children.

CYNTHIA D. PETERSEN N'91

Malcolm, Neb., has been at the Lincoln Regional Center for 27 years and is now an advanced practice registered nurse.

NANCY J. BASHAM N'92

Lincoln, Neb., is a practical nursing program coordinator at Kaplan University.

CHAD L. MCCANCE M'92

Atlantic, Iowa, joined the Southwest Iowa Surgery Practice, a member of Cass County Health System. He and his wife, Laurel, have three children.

JOEL A. TRAVIS M'92

Albion, Neb., received the Volunteer Clinical Faculty Award from the National Medical Honor Society of Alpha Omega Alpha. The award recognizes work with UNMC medical students.

SUSAN K. ROCK N'93

Omaha, Neb., handles triage clinic calls from her home part time for the Diabetes Center at The Nebraska Medical Center. She and her husband, Dan, have five children.

LISA L. SAMUELSON M'93

Los Altos Hills, Calif., is a pediatrician at the Palo Alto Medical Foundation. Her husband, Andrew, recently graduated from the University of Colorado Health Sciences Center and matched in internal medicine. The couple has three children.

JOHN L. ALLEN M'94

Kearney, Neb., practices radiology at Good Samaritan Hospital in Kearney.

DEBORAH CONLEY N'94

Omaha, Neb., is a gerontological clinical nurse specialist at Methodist Hospital. She recently traveled to Australia on behalf of PEPID, a medical software resource company, to promote a gerontological nursing product, for which she is editor-in-chief.

TINA C. MOMMENS N'94

Omaha, Neb., is director of nursing at PhysMed, Inc. Home Health. She previously worked on the bone marrow transplant floor at UNMC.

DIANE R. ZACHER N'94

Branson West, Mo., received medical retirement after completing more than 11 years in the United States Air Force. She enjoys retirement with her newlywed husband, Paul.

ROCHELLE R. ANTOINE N'95

Rosebud, S.D., is a registered nurse at Indian Health Services. She previously was employed with Lincoln-Lancaster County Health Departments for Kids Connection.

KARI L. BATHOLOMEW N'95

Lincoln, Neb., is a registered nurse coordinator at Bickford Cottage in Lincoln.

CASEY M. CORTNEY PT'95

Sidney, Neb., owns a new private practice with interests in wound care, women's health, myofascial release and wellness.

JILL FERRY PA'95

Portsmouth, Iowa, is an ACLS and PALS instructor. She has three children.

STEVEN G. LAPKE M'95

Papillion, Neb., was named emergency department medical director at Crawford County Memorial Hospital. He served as chief resident for one year at Clarkson Hospital in Omaha. He and his wife, Jenni, have five children.

TED R. MIKULS M'95

Omaha, Neb., is an associate professor of rheumatology at UNMC. He received one of UNMC's New Investigators Awards in 2007, as well as the 2008 Joseph P. Gilmore Award.

*KATHRYN A. VUPER M'95

Williams Bay, Wis., does on-site nursing home psychiatry and forensics.

PEGGY J. SCOTT N'95

Raleigh, N.C., enjoys her new position at Rex University of North Carolina Health Care as a cancer navigator for lungs, gastrointestinal, pancreatic and liver cancers.

VAUGHAN A. WENZEL PA'95

Papillion, Neb., takes flying lessons and already has had a solo flight. He plans to attend instrument school after he earns his private pilot certificate. He says, "You are never too old to go to PA school and you are never too old to learn how to fly... do it!"

J. SCOTT NEUMEISTER M'95

Omaha, Neb., is an associate professor in the general medicine section of the department of internal medicine. He is one of four UNMC faculty members to receive the Outstanding Teaching Award in 2008.

GRANT F. HUTCHINS M'96

Omaha, Neb., works at The Nebraska Medical Center and uses a new technology called the SpyGlass Camera, which provides a live, color picture of the liver, gall bladder and bile duct to help diagnose and treat patients.

WILLIAM E. THORELL M'96

Omaha, Neb., received the Physicians of Distinction Recognition Award (specialist category) from The Nebraska Medical Center in March and was recognized for excellence in clinical practice. He is one of 55 neurological surgeons in the United States – and the only one in the region – trained to perform endovascular therapies for cerebrovascular disease. He also was recognized by the Midlands Business Journal as one of its outstanding people under the age of 40.

LYNN M. MOUSEL M'97

Des Moines, Iowa, completed a fellowship in child and adolescent psychiatry at the University of Kentucky in Lexington and practices at Orchard Place in Des Moines, Iowa. She was a lay associate for the Humility Sisters for two years prior to beginning formation for vowed membership.

Courtney Fletcher, Pharm.D., dean of the College of Pharmacy, and Drew Klinkebiel, '08, visit during a reception, sponsored by the College of Pharmacy Alumni Association. The reception preceded the College of Pharmacy Class of 2008 End of Year Banquet.

RICHARD J. SEITZ M'97

Omaha, Neb., is an internal medicine specialist at Fremont Area Medical Center and was elected a fellow with the American College of Physicians. His specialty areas are cardiology, rheumatology, diabetes management and gastroenterology. He is a member of Fremont Medical Associates P.C. in Fremont.

KERRI L. CHRISTIAN P'98

Colorado Springs, Colo., is a lead consultant pharmacist for PharmERICA. She and her husband, Ryan, have two children.

BRIAN T. FAY P'98 M'05

Omaha, Neb., recently received the Internal Medicine Resident Research Award at UNMC. He conducted an initial study that looked at infections in patients with rheumatoid arthritis and will extend his work through a nationwide VA database. He will present his work at the American College of Rheumatology meeting in October. He also will serve as chief resident of internal medicine at UNMC for the 2008-2009 academic year.

SARA L. MINER P'98

Overland Park, Kan., and her husband, Eric, have two daughters.

AMY J. SKOLAUT PT'98

Omaha, Neb., works in a private outpatient clinic. She has one son.

STACY M. TORNETEN PT'99

Harlan, Iowa, works at Myrtue Medical Center in Harlan, Iowa. She and her husband, Terry, have two children.

DANIEL R. WADDINGHAM PA'99

Seattle, Wash., has retired after 27 years of active duty with the United States Coast Guard. He now works at two clinics in Seattle.

Showing their Husker spirit at the UNMC Alumni Blast at the Blatt are Chelsea Schauer, PT, '01, '05, her husband, Josh, their children and Chelsea's parents.

2000s

NATALIE AUSTIN PA'00

Sewickley, Penn., is a physician assistant in nephrology.

JASON T. HELVEY M'00

Omaha, Neb., is an assistant professor of radiology in the section of neuroradiology at UNMC.

BRENDA J. KEMLING N'00

Farmington, Ga., was promoted to clinic manager in November 2007.

VIRGINIA M. RIPLEY M'00

Omaha, Neb., has two children with husband, Aaron Ripley.

JAMES L. LEDFORD PA'01

Franklin, N.C., was appointed Macon County Medical Examiner in 2000 and then to Macon County's Child Fatality Prevention Team in 2007.

ALLISON A. SHUMAN N'01

Venice, Calif., earned her master's of science degree in anesthesia from the University of Southern California in September 2007. She practices as a certified registered nurse anesthetist in Los Angeles.

CARISSA A. DALY N'02

Gretna, Neb., is in grad school at Bryan Lincoln General Hospital for nurse anesthesia. She also does clinicals at UNMC.

PATRICIA E. GRAHAM N'02

Sioux City, Iowa, teaches at Morningside College in the Bachelor's of Social Work Program. She also is enrolled in a doctor of education program at the College of Saint Mary in Omaha.

AARON WENBURG PT'02

Hastings, Neb., recently completed a one-year sports physical therapy residency at Gundersen

Jose Friesen, M.D., '02, his wife, Angie, and their children, Dominic and Jackie, participate in the UNMC Alumni Hoop It Up event prior to a Husker basketball game.

Lutheran Sports Medicine in Lacrosse, Wis. He is employed at Hastings Physical Therapy. He and his wife, Andrea, have one child.

CHRISTINE A. ALEXANDER P'03

Lincoln, Neb., was promoted to manager at Walgreen's Pharmacy.

SUSAN G. HAGEMAN PT'03

Grand Island, Neb., traveled to Kijabe, Kenya, in April 2007 to assist occupational therapist at Bethany Kids Hospital.

ELIZABETH A. BARKOUDAH M'04

Jamaica Plains, Mass., graduated in June 2007 from the University of Tennessee with special interest in pediatrics. She has a neuro-developmental disabilities fellowship at Children's Hospital in Boston and will graduate in 2011.

TAMI S. DODDS M'04

Albion, Neb., completed her family medicine residency and was employed by Boone County Health Center in August. She passed her board certification exam in December. She and her husband, Bill, have three children.

GINA L. JONES PA'04

Medford, Ore., is on the American Academy of Physician Assistants' Public Relations Committee and is training for a marathon.

JOSEPH J. KEZEOR M'04

Holdrege, Neb., just completed a fellowship year practicing cesarean sections, colonoscopies and various other procedures. He practices at High Plains Clinic.

TRISHA A. MADSEN N'04

Kearney, Neb., is working at Plains Heart Institute, a new outpatient heart catheterization lab in Kearney.

John Franzen, Marcellene (Holmes) Franzen and Michael Eigenberg, right, enjoy the College of Medicine Class of 2008 Senior Banquet, sponsored by the College of Medicine Alumni Association.

REBECCA D. CHURCH N'05

Lackland AFB, Texas, worked as a clinical nurse on a busy post-surgical trauma floor, but deployed to Iraq in May to use her nursing skills on a higher level. She will become a 1st Lt. in March 2009. She also has received a nursing service award.

ELIZABETH J. HYTREK N'06

Omaha, Neb., is a research nurse at UNMC.

RANDY L. ORSBORN PA'06

Mt. Kernan, Ohio, is a clinical lipid specialist.

PAMELA C. PHIPPS N'06

Casper, Wyo., is a head nurse and will get her orthopaedic nurse certification in a year. She hopes to be in the master's program for her CNS at UNMC this fall.

HEATHER D. SAUNDERS P'07

Denver, Colo., is anxious to take her North American Pharmacist Licensure Examination and begin her career as a licensed pharmacist. Her husband's job at Continental Fire Sprinkler Company has taken them to Denver.

Medical Residents

MAGGIE JANE BROWNELL P'06

San Diego, Calif., is currently completing her post graduate year two residency in infectious diseases at the University of California Medical Center.

Marriages

NATALIE D. AUSTIN PA'00

Sewickley, Pa., married Raymond Austin on Sept. 22, 2007.

ELIZABETH J. HYTREK N'06

Omaha, Neb., married Christopher Hytrek on May 5, 2007. The couple resides in Omaha.

KATHRYN C. MCEVOY P'06

Omaha, Neb., married Timothy McEvoy in October 2007.

CINDY HUFF P'00 AND JASON HUFF M'00

Colorado Springs, Colo., married on Aug. 10, 2007.

Births

CATHERINE A. SUTERA M'93

Chadron, Neb., and husband, Dwight, welcomed Daniel Vito Rasmussen on Feb. 10, 2008.

SUSAN K. ROCK N'93

Omaha, Neb., and husband, Dan, welcomed Rebecca Danielle on June 7, 2007.

DANIEL J. TOMES M'97

Lincoln, Neb., and wife, Libby, welcomed Sophie Cecilia on Aug. 2, 2007.

HEATHER L. WALSH M'97

Omaha, Neb., and husband, Robert, welcomed Robert Winston Preuss on April 4, 2007.

KERRI L. CHRISTIAN P'98

Colorado Springs, Colo., and husband, Ryan, welcomed Aaron Andrew on Nov. 8, 2007.

JENNIFER M. MCKENNA PA'99

Olathe, Kan., and husband, Mike, welcomed Addison Paige on April 24, 2007.

STACY M. TORNETEN PT'99

Harlan, Iowa, and husband, Terry, welcomed son, Eric, in July 2004 and daughter, Carly, in December 2007.

JEFFREY J. ELLIS P'00 AND JESSICA J. GOMPERT-ELLIS P'00

Canton, Mich., welcomed Jackson Beckett on Aug. 31, 2007.

BRENDA J. KEMLING N'00

Farmington, Ga., and husband, Michael, welcomed Ilsa Jean on April 30, 2007.

BETH A. LUDWIG PT'00

Lincoln, Neb., and husband, Joseph, welcomed son, Samuel William, on Feb. 20, 2007.

MINDY E. LAVICKY N'01

Kearney, Neb., and husband, Brian, welcomed twins, Taaron and Kolton, on Feb. 8, 2008.

HILARIE L. REDLINE P'01 AND TIMOTHY F. REDLINE P'97

Hastings, Neb., welcomed Madalynn Laura Redline on Oct. 15, 2006.

ELIZABETH B. BAUER M'02 AND MICHAEL S. BAUER M'04

Columbus, Ohio, welcomed son, Samuel Michael, on June 7, 2007.

HALEY E. FAHNHOLZ PA'02

Bennington, Neb., and husband, Kory, welcomed Kaleb Thomas on June 10, 2007.

JENNIFER SHERMAN PT'02

Coon Rapids, Minn., and husband, Eric, welcomed Sophie Ann on Aug. 30, 2007.

AARON WENBURG PT'02

Hastings, Neb., and his wife, Andrea, welcomed Amelia Dawn on March 9, 2007.

TAMI S. DODDS M'04

Albion, Neb., and husband, Bill, welcomed Austin in October 2007.

ANDREA M. FOLTZ P'04

Omaha, Neb., and husband, Andy, welcomed Addison Grace on Jan. 19, 2008.

SARAH BROADHEAD M'05

Omaha, Neb., and husband, Shawn, welcomed son, Ethan Edward, on Dec. 7, 2007.

Remembering...

JOHN W. HENDERSON M'37

Sidney, Neb., Oct. 25, 2007

STUART P. WILEY M'43

Green Valley, Ariz., Nov. 4, 2007

LORAN E. COPPOC M'44

Hot Springs, Ark., Nov. 23, 2007

RICHARD CARL DELFS M'44

Fremont, Calif., Dec. 23, 2007

M. LOIS MURPHY M'44

New York, N.Y., April 8, 2008

HARRY W. PITCAITHLEY M'44

San Leandro, Calif., Jan. 15, 2008

RICHARD F. DEMAY M'51

Grand Island, Neb., Dec. 12, 2007

WAYNE L. ZLOMKE M'56

Ord, Neb., April 13, 2008

DELYLE R. YOUNGMAN M'57

Fort Worth, Texas, Nov. 20, 2007

WALLACE M. LANDHOLM M'59

Newport Beach, Calif., Jan. 24, 2008

CLAYTON L. PETTIPIECE M'58

Nixa, Mo., Feb. 29, 2008

DOROTHY D. MILLER-SKOGLUND M'68

Fallbrook, Calif., March 31, 2007

MARILYN C. DOWNS P'83

Omaha, Neb., Feb. 2, 2007

DEBRA M. LYDDON M'87

Omaha, Neb., June 5, 2008

JEFFREY KNAJDL M'94

Bellevue, Neb., July 18, 2008

We love hearing from you! Please send your professional and personal news for Class Notes to:

UNMC Alumni Affairs
985200 Nebraska Medical Center
Omaha, NE 68198-5200
Phone: (402)559-4385
Toll free: (888)725-8664
Email: alumni@unmc.edu
Website: www.unmc.edu/alumni

