

This series features scholarly lectures and presentations addressing contemporary issues of diversity and cultural performances highlighting the diverse cultures present in our community. The goal of the series is to encourage discussions and serve as a tool to inform faculty, staff and students about different perspective, cultures and social issues.

HUMAN RESOURCES

Diversity Lectures and Cultural Arts Series

2010 | 2011

November 5, 2010

12:00pm - 1:00pm

“Cultural Competency and the Muslim Women”

Dr. Naser Alsharif
Eppley Science Hall | Rm 3010

December 2, 2010

11:30am - 1:00pm

India: Beyond Bollywood
An Introduction to Indian Culture

Dr. Chandrakanth Are
Durham Research Center | Auditorium

February 3, 2011

12:00pm - 1:00pm

Why Courage is Worth Catching
How courage can bring positive social change

Clennon King, Journalist
Eppley Science Hall | Rm 3010

March 9, 2011

11:30am - 1:00pm

“FEAR” - Future Events Appearing Real:
Fear of Success and Risk Taking and the 3 Key Moments

Bonnie Coffey
Truhlsen Campus Events Center

April 21, 2011

11:30am - 1:30pm

2011 Annual Culture Fest

World Music, Food and Arts Festival
Truhlsen Campus Events Center

May 20, 2011

11:30am - 1:00pm

Tai Chi Presentation and Demonstration

with Fanying Kong and Quin Yang
Truhlsen Campus Event Center

All Events are FREE and Open to All UNMC and TNMC Employees, Faculty and Students and Includes Free Lunch for the first 35 attendees

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT THE PROGRAM COORDINATOR

Linda M. Cunningham, MPA
Staff Diversity Specialist | Human Resources, Diversity
lcunningham@unmc.edu | (402) 559-7394