

Educating the physician-scientists of tomorrow . .

Welcome to the UNMC M.D./Ph.D. Scholars Program!

Please use this website to learn more about our program, and be sure to check out the applicant information and frequently asked questions sites.

UPDATED 07/31/2009: The agenda for the First Annual UNMC MD/PhD Scholars Program Retreat has been posted!

UPDATED 07/23/2009: Scholar Brady Beecham's blog is up and running! Follow Brady on her journey to South Africa where she will conduct research in HIV/AIDS epidemiology as a Fogarty International Clinical Research Fellow!

06/01/2009: Prestigious fellowship to fund student's research in South Africa: UNMC MD/PhD student, Brady Beecham, received one of only 28 Fogarty International Clinical Research Fellowships from The National Institutes of Health. This award will allow Brady to conduct a portion of her thesis research in HIV/AIDS epidemiology while abroad in South Africa. A link to Brady's blog describing her experiences in South Africa will be on this website in the near future!

05/26/2009: The newest Scholars to join the UNMC MD/PhD Scholars Program have begun their research rotations. We welcome Duy Ha, Phil Purnell, James Reinecke, Cassia Rye, and Krupa Savalia to UNMC!

05/06/2009: UNMC opens its newest research facility: Durham Research Facility II

Classes have officially begun at the Michael F. Sorrell Health Science Education Center, a brand new, state of the art educational facility right here on UNMC's campus. For more information, please visit the MSC website!

*** This year marks our first Annual MD/PhD Scholars Program Retreat. The event will take place August 14-15 at the Lied

Lodge & Conference Center in Nebraska City, NE--More information to come! ***