

The Office of the Senior Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs

Joanne Loch Memorial Award

The Joanne Loch Memorial Award recognizes a full-time staff person in a unit of UNMC Academic Affairs who has demonstrated (through a direct or supporting role) attributes of Perseverance, Thoughtfulness, Encouragement, Adaptable and Teamwork that were exemplified by Joanne Loch.

ELIGIBLE CANDIDATES

- Rank: All managerial professionals, office-service and administrative staff that work in Academic Affairs for .75FTE or greater.
- Experience: Academic Affairs employee for 1 or more years (from award submission deadline).
- Past recipients of this award are re-eligible in 3 years.

AWARD CRITERIA

Demonstrates at least three of the following:

- Perseverance – Persistence in doing something despite difficulty or delay in achieving success.
- Thoughtfulness – Takes into consideration the needs of other people.
- Encouragement – Giving someone support, confidence, or hope.
- Adaptable – Has the ability to adapt to new conditions or expectations.
- Teamwork – Collaborating to achieve a common goal while respecting diversity and one another.

NOMINATION MATERIALS

1. Nomination Form (required)

The nominator can be any UNMC employee, not just an individual within Academic Affairs.

2. Supporting Materials (optional)

Supervisor letter of support and additional letters are encouraged.

RECOGNITION

- A personalized Joanne Loch Memorial Award
- $500.00 for staff development (can be used over a two-year period)
- Name on a plaque that will be displayed in the office of the Senior Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs