

SEEKING NOMINATIONS

College of Nursing Alumni Awards

Due March 26, 2021

The College of Nursing Alumni Council is seeking nominations for awards to be presented during Alumni Reunion Weekend 2021 in Omaha.

How to Nominate: Please draft a brief (one-page or less) statement of nomination to include the above-mentioned selection criteria the nominee exemplifies. A bio or CV may also be included if available. Please submit nominations to alumni@unmc.edu.

Categories

The Distinguished Alumnus Award is presented to honor and promote outstanding achievement in nursing by a living graduate of the UNMC College of Nursing. The recipient will demonstrate marked achievement and contributions in one or more of the following areas: nursing practice, nursing research and publications, community service, professional development, education and nursing leadership.

The Nursing Excellence Award is presented to honor and promote outstanding achievement in nursing by an individual who graduated from the UNMC College of Nursing within the last five years. The recipient will demonstrate early achievements in one or more of the following areas: nursing practice, nursing research and publications, community service, professional development, education and nursing leadership.

The Dorothy Patach Spirit of Service Award is presented to a graduate of the UNMC College of Nursing who has contributed not only to the nursing profession, but to his/her community and improving the lives of others. The award was created in 2012 and is named for Dorothy N. Patach, its inaugural recipient.

The Honorary Nursing Alumnus Award is presented to recognize a non-graduate of the UNMC College of Nursing who has demonstrated loyal and distinguished service and contributions to the College of Nursing or the Alumni Council.

For questions, contact kat.hamilton@unmc.edu.