Join BHECN for a webinar on Innovative Delivery Methods for Improving Access to Psychiatric Care presented by Margaret R. Emerson DNP, APRN, PMHNP-BC.

Learning objectives:

1. Define the core components of collaborative and integrated care strategies
2. Explain specific collaborative clinician roles and corresponding tasks associated with these roles
3. Describe how collaborative and integrated care strategies are applied in primary care
4. Describe pertinent outcomes for treating common mental disorders in primary care using collaborative care model

Cost: Free

Who should attend? Advanced practice providers, nurses, licensed mental health therapists, and social workers

Presented by:
Dr. Margaret R. Emerson DNP, APRN, PMHNP-BC

To register:
bit.ly/BHECNWebSeries2-10-2020

Continuing Education:
The University of Nebraska Medical Center College of Nursing Continuing Nursing Education is accredited with distinction as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation. This activity is provided for 1.0 contact hour under ANCC criteria.

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation (ANCC) through the joint providership of the University of Nebraska Medical Center College of Nursing Continuing Nursing Education (UNMC CON CNE) (provider) and Behavioral Health Education Center of Nebraska (BHECN).

Dr. Emerson has expertise in integrated care through formal training, dissemination of her work in integrated care via publication, collaboration with experts and in current practice, serving as a psychiatric consultant in an outpatient integrated primary care clinic.