The Department of Otolaryngology-Head & Neck Surgery presents:

6th Annual Scary Cases Conference

Saturday, October 21, 2023

Williams Science Hall 1.0.009 and live stream

The Department of Otolaryngology-Head & Neck Surgery is hosting our 6th Annual Scary Cases Conference! This case-based conference is designed to review real-life unique and rare cases in otolaryngology, head and neck surgery, ophthalmology, dermatology, and oral surgery.

Target Audience

This conference is intended for physicians, advanced practice providers, nurses, and other health care personnel in the field of ENT, dermatology, ophthalmology, and oral surgery.

CALL FOR SCARY CASES

We invite participants to submit the scariest of cases to be presented and discussed in an open, collaborative forum during the conference. The registration fee will be waived for physicians and APPs who answer our call for scary cases BEFORE registering for the conference. Submit your case via email to ent@unmc.edu by October 1, 2023.

Registration Fee

- $25 for physicians and APPs (fee waived will be sent for those who submit cases).
- FREE for nurses, residents, medical students, and other health care professionals.

Online registration will be available soon. The deadline to register is October 16, 2023. Breakfast is provided for in-person attendees. Space is limited, so please register early. Walk-ins will not be accepted.
