

Nursing Mentoring Workshop: CIMER competency training & UNMC CON PhD program teaching/advising training

PRESENTED BY

CENTER FOR PATIENT FAMILY AND COMMUNITY
ENGAGEMENT IN CHRONIC CARE MANAGEMENT
(CENTRIC)

WHEN & WHERE

Wednesday, August 12, 2020; 9AM–12PM CST

THIS TRAINING WILL BE PROVIDED ON ZOOM Registration is Free!

This is the beginning of a series that will be on the 2nd Wednesday of the month for 5 SESSIONS: through December 2020

Tiffany Moore, PhD

Chair, CENTRIC Mentorship Steering Committee

Myra Schmaderer, PhD

CENTRIC Mentorship Steering Committee Member

Facilitation of CIMER competency training. This session will cover "Maintaining Effective Communication"

- Center for the Improvement of Mentored Experience in Research (CIMER) provides resources for organizations and institutions to improve research mentoring relationships and develop the next generation of researchers. This session will provide mentor training to anyone seeking training on mentoring research faculty, postdocs, or PhD students. The focus will be on Nursing Science mentoring

Robin Lally, PhD

Interim Associate Dean for Research

- Results of May 2020 PhD faculty survey
- Q& A specific to teaching/advising in the PhD program

Please register at:

<https://unmcredcap.unmc.edu/redcap/surveys/?s=PTD9389X7M>