Continuing Education

Potpourri of Oral Pathology: Challenging and Fun Cases from Everyday Practice

Dr. Donald M. Cohen trained in oral pathology at Temple University. He is professor and division head of oral pathology at the University of Florida College of Dentistry. Dr. Cohen is board certified in oral and maxillo-facial pathology and is the director of a large multi-state biopsy service. He also has a private practice limited to oral medicine at the University of Florida and serves as the director for education and continuing education for the American Academy of Oral & Maxillo-facial Pathology. Dr. Cohen has authored over one hundred papers and book chapters in oral and maxillofacial pathology.

Luncheon Speaker

Marc Boehm, University of Nebraska Athletics

A member of the Nebraska Athletics senior administration since May 2003, Marc Boehm serves as executive associate athletic director and is the top assistant to the athletic director. He fulfills the director’s responsibilities in his absence and also serves as the department’s chief operating officer, overseeing efforts of several areas within athletics, including ticket operations, and guest services.

Hygiene’s 50th Anniversary

College of Dentistry’s Dental Hygiene Program Reaches a Milestone

We’ve come a long way from ten students in 1966 to 24 in 2016! Join us on Thursday for an exciting celebration at the University of Nebraska’s Innovation Campus. Our schedule will include welcomes from the College of Dentistry’s Dean Janet Guthmiller and Department Chair Gwen Hlava, along with featured speaker Pamela Zarkowski. Make plans to reminisce and reconnect with your classmates Thursday evening at a local restaurant or classmate’s home. Don’t miss this milestone in dental hygiene education. We’re half a century young!

Dental Hygiene Alumni!

Please plan to join us on Thursday for a historic gathering of educators, students and graduates of University of Nebraska Medical Center College of Dentistry’s Dental Hygiene Program. It won’t be the same without YOU!
