

Conversations for Inclusive Excellence

CHALLENGE, QUESTION & DISCUSSION PROMPTS

CHALLENGE:

Listen: (Podcast) Stuff You Should Know – What were the Black Codes

Read: VOX – How history's textbooks reflect America's refusal to reckon with slavery

QUESTION:

"How could current policies and systems in our institution or state create or exacerbate inequity for future Americans?"

DISCUSSION:

Watch Together

TedTalk: Confronting Hard History - Hasan Kwame Jeffries, PhD

- 1) What from this session was the most salient to you?
- 2) What impacts could LB 1077 have on UNMC? What 2nd and 3rd order effects could that produce?
- 3) How can I incorporate lessons learned from this session or discussion into my daily or work life?

ACTION Framework: https://go.unmc.edu/FACDEV_ACTION

February 2022 - Accountability - Confronting Hard History

 Twitter: @UNMCInclusion |  Email: inclusion@unmc.edu

"We're better together." – Dr. Sheritta Strong
Assistance Vice Chancellor of Inclusion
Chief Diversity Officer at UNMC