

Conversations for Inclusive Excellence

CHALLENGE, QUESTION & DISCUSSION PROMPTS

CHALLENGE:

Listen: (Podcast) Hidden Brain – Playing the Gender Card

Attend & Participate: Women's History Month programming and activities when you can

QUESTION:

"Where can I be 'loud and proud' about equity at work or in my community?"

DISCUSSION:

Watch Together

TEDTalk: The political progress women have made-- and what's next by Cecile Richards

- 1) What from this session was the most salient to you?
- 2) Where could UNMC make work better for women? How could that also make work better for men?
- 3) Where could I individually make work better for women in my role, my office or my department? What barriers would I need to overcome to make that happen?

ACTION Framework: https://go.unmc.edu/FACDEV_ACTION

March 2022 - WHM: Courage - Time to Be Loud and Proud

 Twitter: @UNMCInclusion |  Email: inclusion@unmc.edu

"We're better together." – Dr. Sheritta Strong
Assistance Vice Chancellor of Inclusion
Chief Diversity Officer at UNMC