Faculty Development at UNMC

The Office of Faculty Development’s goal is to help faculty deal with the rapid changes and evolving paradigms in education, clinical practice, and health care systems.

To meet these ever-changing needs, Faculty Development offers an assortment of different free educational programs every year. These events are carefully planned and designed to help UNMC faculty reach their full potential.

Hot Topics for 2021

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

Diversity, equity, and inclusion are critical components of more innovative and productive organizations. Discover how you can contribute to sustained organizational change for a more equitable future in health science education by examining topics such as:

- Inclusive pedagogy
- Power and privilege dynamics
- Equity-minded workloads
- Diverse hiring practices

The Future of Work

Our once tried and true systems have been disrupted over the past year. We’ll help provide you with the skills you need to be successful now and in the future. Topics explored include:

- Essential digital skills
- Time-saving efficiencies
- Hybrid teaching strategies

Leadership

Leadership is an enduring hot topic. However, the importance of adaptable leadership skills has come to the forefront. Discover the desirable skills you need to take your career to new heights. Topics include:

- Advocacy actions of women in leadership
- Professional challenges of leaders
- Coaching practices

Digital Literacy

Digital literacy is an important skill, not only for educators and learners but healthcare providers and patients as well. It is a critical competency for enhancing learning outcomes in health science education. We’ll examine topics such as:

- Navigating information online
- Combating misinformation
- Optimizing LinkedIn
