FEBRUARY HEADLINES - UNMC TODAY

Spring Re-Imagine U courses
It’s time to register for spring 2021 Virtual Re-Imagine U (RIU) courses. (2-1-21)

Masks, limited gathering precautions remain
UNMC and Nebraska Medicine continue to require masks, social distancing and limited gatherings on campus. (2-2-21)

Academic Affairs Impact in Education Awards
Interprofessional Education Scholar: William Hay, MD, associate professor, UNMC Department of Family Medicine; director, SHARING Clinics. (2-4-21)

Vaccinated or not, public health measures continue
Vaccines are a step in the right direction, but now is not the time to let up on the simple public health measures that we know work. (2-5-21)

Two named to COM DEI leadership team
Armando De Alba, MD, and Liliana Bronner have been named to the leadership team of the UNMC College of Medicine’s Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI). (2-9-21)

Dr. Jones named to Douglas County Health Department board
Andrea Jones, MD, began serving a three-year term in January on the nine-member board of the Douglas County Health Department. (2-15-21)

Inclusive Excellence: Fighting racism and ‘place-ism’
The second meeting in UNMC’s “Conversations for Inclusive Excellence” Cultural Humility Series. (2-15-21)

February InterCOM
A message from the Dean. (2-18-21)

CEO Update
CEO Jim Linder, MD, talks COVID-19 vaccines and gives thanks to those helping with our vaccine clinic. (2-2-21)

How to fight COVID-19 at home
Most cases can be treated at home, but some widely shared advice on how to beat it is just plain wrong. (2-4-21)

Fast Pass fills clinic schedules, one cancellation at a time
The technology offers open appointments to patients, saving staff time, filling clinic schedules and helping patients be seen sooner. (2-21-21)

Latest forum highlights COVID-19, organizational updates
More from the forum. (2-15-21)

FEBRUARY HEADLINES - NEBRASKA MEDICINE NOW

Improved internet access for personal devices
On Thursday, Feb. 18, at 5 p.m., the current guest Wi-Fi will be replaced with MedCenter Guest. (2-18-21)

Personalize your NOW experience
Help people put a face to a name, by simply editing your account profile and adding a picture of yourself. (2-23-21)