On the road again
Rural first responders are “hungry” for emergency training. (1-4-22)

Med center virtual forum address omicron
the COVID-19 omicron variant and what makes it so different and concerning. (1-12-22)

Campus Wi-Fi has changed
The ability for students to connect to the UNMC Wi-Fi network named TK-421 was discontinued. (1-13-22)

KN95 or N95 masks required for UNMC faculty, staff, and students
The decision follows a directive from Nebraska Medicine. (1-14-22)

UNMC’s health and safety remains highest priority
Dr. Gold said the university is watching omicron trends in Nebraska as leaders consider campus safety guidelines. (1-17-22)

New employee assistance program is live
The partnership with SupportLinc started Jan. 1 and includes more options for Nebraska Medicine colleagues to connect with support services. (1-3-22)

Looking back at where we’ve been
As we enter the new year with new opportunities, CEO Jim Linder, MD, shares a look back at 2021. (1-4-22)

Dr. Linder among nearly 2,000 CEOs committing to advance diversity, inclusion in the workplace
In a video, CEO Jim Linder, MD, talks about taking the American Hospital Association’s #123forEquity pledge. (1-5-22)

Crisis care standards
CEO Jim Linder, MD, outlines what this means for the organization and our patients. (1-13-22)

Campus leaders urge more asymptomatic testing
UNMC leaders are encouraging members of the UNMC community to make more use of the free saliva testing at Williams Science Hall as the omicron COVID-19 variant continues to quickly spread. (1-18-22)

Talk It Thru
Security in the Internet of Things. (1-18-22)

MLK event recap
More than 300 Nebraska Medicine and UNMC colleagues gathered virtually Monday to celebrate the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. (1-19-22)

Guidance on ordering, extending the use of KN95s
The effective duration varies depending on the employee’s role, as well as the care and use of the mask. (1-24-22)

Swabbing location opens at Bellevue
The gift shop has been converted to a specimen location site for people who need to be tested for COVID-19. (1-18-22)

Time clocks, MyTime (Kronos) application back in service
Kronos was affected by a cyber event in mid-December, taking out Nebraska Medicine’s timekeeping services. (1-25-22)

New Nebraska Medicine guidelines: What to do if exposed to, sick from COVID-19
Nebraska Medicine updates isolation and quarantine guidelines, based on new CDC recommendations. (12-31-21)