MARCH HEADLINES - UNMC TODAY

Campus returns with ‘abundance of caution’
Dr. Gold addressed a campus in a transition period with the pandemic. (3-4-22)

Campus forum shows Ukraine invasion hits home
The invasion of Ukraine weighs heavily on many within the UNMC community. (3-8-22)

New resource available for faculty search committees
A new Faculty Search Committee Guidebook and Digital Toolkit is now available. (3-15-22)

Nebraska Promise tuition program expands
Qualified Nebraska students with family incomes of $65,000 or less will be able to attend the University of Nebraska tuition-free. (3-15-22)

Online community offers connections
The UNMC community is invited to join the site and connect with alumni and students through personal and professional networking. (3-17-22)

Inclusive Excellence
Gender equality in leadership. (3-17-22)

Jones makes list of outstanding women
Andrea Jones, MD, has been selected as an honoree for the Women's Center for Advancement 35th Annual Tribute to Women Luncheon. (3-18-22)

Microsoft 365 series runs in May and June
Virtual nine-week teaching series. (3-21-22)

Match Day
Resilient med students discover their paths (3-23-22)

US News ranks UNMC educational programs among best
UNMC’s primary care program is seventh out of 124 institutions across the country. (3-30-22)

Reducing provider burnout with zero click documentation
Update on clinical ambient technology and artificial intelligence (AI) at Nebraska Medicine. (3-1-22)

Colleague leadership development program begins soon
Read more about the Aspire program and find out how to sign up. (3-2-22)

Dr. Linder shares three Cs
What are the three Cs of business? CEO Jim Linder, MD, shares some wisdom from our board of directors. (3-4-22)

Colleague forum
Operations to return to conventional status Monday. (3-11-22)

Nebraska Medicine app continues strong growth
Beginning Monday, March 14, the MyChart app will not include a Nebraska Medicine listing (3-11-22)

Policy updates reflect lower COVID-19 cases
Beginning Monday, March 21, changes will be made to the visitor policy, masking guidelines and pre-procedural testing requirements. (3-18-22)

Colleague forum
COVID-19 cases remain low in our community as we continue with conventional operations status and look forward to the future. (3-24-22)

UNMC, Nebraska Medicine economic impact tops $5.9 billion annually
Impact grows to $6.4 billion when academic work with clinical affiliates is considered. (3-28-22)