MAY HEADLINES - UNMC TODAY

Dr. Lisco appointed to leadership roles
Steven Lisco, MD will assume two leadership roles currently held by Carl Smith, MD, starting July 1. (5-2-22)

Applications open for IAE
Applications for membership are open now through June 21. (4-4-22)

Dr. Sitorius to retire after more than 40 years
“I’ve loved working at UNMC,” Dr. Sitorius said. (5-3-22)

Campus tour explores combating racism in medicine
A senior project involving QR codes across campus. (5-3-22)

Resident of the month
Oluwatobi Ogun, MD. (5-3-22)

Chancellor’s forum
COVID situation continues to evolve. (5-4-22)

MAY HEADLINES - NEBRASKA MEDICINE NOW

Celebrating our trusted colleagues
As part of Colleague Week, CEO Jim Linder, MD, announces a special gift for all Nebraska Medicine and UNMC colleagues. (5-6-22)

Colleague forum: Colleague Week, COVID-19, and other updates
We’re starting to see increased COVID-19 cases in the community and in the hospital. If you haven’t gotten your booster dose and are eligible, now is the time. (5-13-22)

Welcome back, job shadows
The program resumes Monday, May 30, after being suspended during the COVID-19 pandemic. (5-25-22)

Support resources in the wake of recent violence
Our Employee Assistance Program partner, SupportLinc, has compiled some resources for colleagues. (5-26-22)

Chosen name, pronouns soon reflected across platforms
The policy allows students, faculty and staff at all NU campuses — including UNMC — to select their chosen name, gender identity and pronouns. (5-6-22)

Wireless network TK-421 being replaced
TK-421 is being replaced by a new network, MedCenter WiFi. (5-24-22)

Echo360 now integrated with Zoom
Zoom recording to the cloud recently was enabled for the UNMC/Nebraska Medicine Zoom account. (5-26-22)