

THESIS BOOT CAMP

Registration Form

Monday through Thursday, August 7-10, 2023

Boot Camp is 9:00a.m. to 4:00p.m. each day in the McGoogan Health Sciences Library. Lunch and beverages are provided. Participants must make a commitment to the program and attend all sessions. Each student will be assigned an individual study room that provides a quiet, distraction-free space to write in during the Boot Camp.

Cost: $75, posted to the student's account. The fee will be waived, in full, for all students who complete the Boot Camp program. Thus, only those students who fail to complete the program must pay the fee. (This fee will not be paid by the student's department or program. A hold will be placed on the student's account until the fee is paid.) Completing the program requires attending all sessions, showing up on time each day, and staying throughout the each session.

Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis and is limited to 6 M.S. students who are in the process of writing their thesis. Complete this form, including the Media Authorization form, and submit it to Dr. Karen Gould (kagould@unmc.edu) no later than July 7, 2023.
