THE GERIATRIC ASSESSMENT PROGRAM provides a comprehensive evaluation of older persons who are experiencing memory loss and/or a complex of health problems that rob them of their ability to perform essential day-to-day activities. The assessment includes a physical examination, review of medications; cognitive, functional and mood evaluations, and collaboration with the patient’s family or significant support persons. A detailed treatment plan is developed and implemented with the patient, the family caregivers and the person’s primary care physician.