Addiction Medicine

Lead Faculty: Todd Stull MD

Objectives:
The student will be able to:
1. Define addiction.
2. Discuss the developmental, environmental, psychosocial, and genetic components that contribute to addiction.
3. Discuss the common neurocircuitry of addiction.
4. Discuss the common substance use disorders.
5. Identify common medical complications associated with addiction.
6. Identify common co-occurring psychiatric conditions with addiction.
7. Address the family, legal, financial, occupational, and educational consequences of addiction.