The Scottish Rite Foundation of Omaha was formed in 1972 to support the philanthropic charities of Scottish Rite Masons. Since then, the Foundation has given away over $25 million dollars to the community through:
• RiteCare™ Speech and Language Clinics
• A Professorship in Speech-Language Pathology at the University of Nebraska Medical Center
• 13 scholarships to UNO students, including one graduate student in Speech Pathology
• Ethics on Trial—an innovative partnership with the Business Ethics Alliance, presenting an ethical situation in a dramatic courtroom setting, with the jury—the audience—deciding guilt or innocence.
• Financial support for:
   • The Omaha Home for Boys
   • The Plasmouth Masonic Home
   • Masonic-Eastern Star Home for Children
   • The Omaha Home for Boys
