

Autism Information and Support Resources:

Autism Action Partnership

<http://www.autismaction.org>

This is a non-profit organization which provides resources, education and programs across the state to support individuals with autism and their families.

- *Check out their Resource Center (Info regarding ABA consultants, medical providers, etc)
- *They hold a fall summit every year with a National Speaker.

Autism Center of Nebraska

<https://autismcenterofnebraska.org/>

ACN provides services and supports for individuals of all ages who have autism or other developmental disabilities. Some of the services they provide are Residential Services, Vocational and Day Services, Community Inclusion, Transition Services, Employment Services and Respite Services.

Autism Family Network

<http://autismfamilynetwork.org>

This is a non-profit, parent-run organization based out of Lincoln that offers family/sensory-friendly events, news and resources.

Autism Society of Nebraska

<http://www.autismnebraska.org>

This is a parent-run organization that offers news and information about Autism and also family/sensory-friendly events. Chapters exist across the state. They also offer scholarships to attend conferences and individual enrichment grants.

Phone: 1.800.580.9279

Autism Speaks

<http://www.autismspeaks.org>

This is a national advocacy organization which offers resources, information, funding and has helped states get insurance coverage passed in states across the US.

- *Families that have a child diagnosed with Autism can request a free “First 100 Days” manual.
- *Check out their Calendar under the Training tab

The Nebraska Autism Spectrum Disorders Network (ASD Network):

<http://www.unl.edu/asdnetwork>

Funded by the Nebraska Department of Education, the ASD network provides training and technical assistance to school districts, Educational Service Units and parents of children who have autism.

- *Under their Calendar of events- they provide “best practices” regarding autism treatment and interventions at low to no cost. Information is targeted to professionals, and family members.
- *Typically has a fall conference. (Scholarships are available)

This information is provided to families as an informational resource and should not be construed as an endorsement of any group or organization.