FORUM FOR THE FUTURE: PARKINSON DISEASE
In Honor of Parkinson Awareness Month

WHAT:
• Learn more about the services available with the University of Nebraska Medical Center (UNMC) Movement Disorders Program
• Find out the latest information on new treatments and research
• Learn about Parkinson Disease
• Question & Answer session will follow the presentation (questions welcome in advance)

UNMC Speakers Include:
• John M. Bertoni, MD, PhD
  – Professor, Department of Neurological Sciences
• Danish Bhatti, MD
  – Professor, Department of Neurological Sciences
• Diego R. Torres-Russotto, MD
  – Director, Movement Disorder Program
  – Assistant Director, Neurology Residency Program
  – Assistant Professor, Department of Neurological Sciences
  – Director, Neurology Clerkship
  – Director, Movement Disorders Fellowship Program

WHEN: April 4, 2016 | 2 to 4 p.m.

WHO: Parkinson patients and support group leaders encouraged to attend

WAYS TO JOIN US:
1. In person: Come to the UNMC Grissom Conference Center – UH 5412AB (MUST RSVP)
   University Tower at 4400 Emile St., Omaha, NE 68105
2. From your computer: Join the live stream webcast over the Internet. Watch live from your own computer at this link: www.unmc.edu/livevideo/neurolive.html
   (Link will become active 10 minutes prior to the start of the event – for assistance, call 402.559.8090)
3. At a group viewing site: Join us via telehealth video conference. Please contact the telehealth coordinator at your location so they can make connection arrangements.

RSVP and send questions to 402.559.8839 or rahays@nebraskamed.com.