

SHARING ^{the} Green

SHARING Clinics are UNMC's student-run clinics which provide high-quality medical care to Omaha's underserved populations, free of charge.

Serving patients between 4 locations, the SHARING Clinics offer valuable educational and community-engagement opportunities for UNMC students from all health professions.

This golf tournament is our most important fundraiser each year, making up half of the operational budget. Funds raised allow us to continue serving the people of Omaha. For more information about SHARING, please visit: www.unmc.edu/sharing/
