

Olson Center Brown Bag Speaker Profile: Elizabeth Weedin, DO

Turning Up the Volume on Infertility – Identifying and Facilitating Efficient and Effective Care

Jan. 17, 2023

Elizabeth Weedin, DO is a Board-Certified Reproductive Endocrinologist at Heartland Center for Reproductive Medicine.

Dr. Weedin received her osteopathic medical degree from Midwestern University - Arizona College of Osteopathic Medicine. After receiving her Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine, she completed her general Obstetrics and Gynecology residency as well as her fellowship in Reproductive Endocrinology and Infertility at the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center.

Dr. Weedin's research interests include polycystic ovary syndrome and the impact of lifestyle, mental, and emotional health on infertility. Dr. Weedin has special interests in Mullerian anomalies, reproductive surgery, multi-disciplinary approaches to patient care, and infertility treatment.

If you would like to contact our speaker please call the Heartland Center for Reproductive Medicine at 402.717.4200.

Dr. Weedin's presentation materials can be downloaded at www.unmc.edu/obgyn/community/brown-bag-handouts