

Olson Center Brown Bag Speaker Profile:

Diane Ratigan-Schmidt, MSOP HBDI SHRAM-SCP

From Conflict to Collaboration: Transforming Difficult Relationships into Productive Partnerships

Tuesday, Sep. 16, 2025, noon to 1 p.m.

Diane Ratigan-Schmidt, MSOP HBDI SHRAM-SCP is the director of the Workforce Strategy & Team Science in the UNMC Department of Neurological Sciences. She is also the owner and organizational transformation consultant for Holistic Team Wellness Consulting.

Diane completed her Bachelor of Science in Education at the University of Nebraska Omaha, followed by her Master of Science in Organizational Performance at Bellevue University.

Diane has an extensive background in faculty development, leadership coaching and systems strategy. She is widely known for a whole-brain, human-centered approach that balances proactive design with responsive interventions.

If you would like to contact today's Brown Bag presenter, please contact Diane Ratigan-Schmidt at: diratigan@unmc.edu.

For more information, visit our brown bag website.