

UNMC, College of Public Health
Applied Practice Experience (APEX) Opportunities

Partner organization name: Winnebago Public Health Department

Partner organization website: www.winnebagohealth.org

Partner organization brief description: We are a 15 field health programs that are in the process of public health accreditation. There are many activities that we can have assistance in from data collection, analyzing to program evaluation and design.

Partner organization's point of contact name and email: Mona Zuffante, mona.zuffante@wchs.health

Description of partner organization's priority opportunities (APEX activities):

- Develop a workplan to implement an equine therapy program
- Assist with the development of workplan for each of the Wazoki workgroups that are surrounding the maternal health kinship practices.
- Create an updated needs assessment for the maternal child health programming.
- Assist with evaluating what activities are needed for public health accreditation recertification and provide a detailed workplan.

Timeframe of proposed activities:

Can work with the student based upon the amount of time and the activity that they are working on.

Benefit of proposed activities to partner organization:

They will have experience working with and in an Indigenous community and we will get a good foundation for a program.

Benefit of proposed activities to the student:

They will have experience working with and in an Indigenous community and we will get a good foundation for a program.

Skill sets of students requested:

Time management
Organizational Self starter

Additional Information (format of preferred engagement-virtual, hybrid, in-person; partner organization's location):

It can be virtual and then in person on a needed basis