ESSAYS

Essay #1: What will you bring to the GPLI experience?

In 500 words or less, please describe your:

- Current leadership role(s) and responsibilities;
- Sense of self (e.g. knowledge of your strengths and opportunities for growth, etc.);
- Sense of purpose/vision (e.g. what you hope to accomplish in your life and in the world, five year goals, etc.); and,
- Willingness to contribute to the GPLI learning community.

Essay #2: What is one aspect of leadership you find intriguing?

In 500 words or less, please share a quote or statement about leadership. Explain what drew you to those words. [Be sure to cite the source/author of your quote.]

Essay #3: Where is one place you would like to focus your attention and growth?

In 500 words or less, please describe which of the 8 competency domains that anchor this Institute you would most like to strengthen. Just choose one! Why is this the time to enhance personal knowledge, skills, and behaviors in this area? (competency domains can be found here: HERE).

SCHOLAR RESPONSIBILITIES

In the online application, be prepared to electronically sign the following agreement form:

Institute scholars must commit the time, effort and resources required to complete distance-based activities (about two-three hours per week) and to participate in three on-site workshops of about three days each.

- I will commit the time necessary to attend all Institute events and fulfill the program assignments.
- I understand that I will be required to remain on-site throughout (day/night) the entire duration of the three scheduled on-site sessions.
- I will ask for and obtain real and demonstrable support from my employer(s) for time away from work needed to participate in three on-site sessions.
- I will read all assigned books and materials, complete self-assessments, and participate in distance learning activities.
- I will be an active participant in the Institute and agree to participate in group learning activities.
- I have (or will have) timely access to adequate computer hardware and software to participate in the distance-learning activities of the Institute.
- I understand that payment of the $2,950 Great Plains Leadership Institute attendance fee is my responsibility with or without the assistance of my employer and there will be no refund after September 1.
- I understand that transportation to and from all Institute sessions and activities is the responsibility of the scholar and/or their organization.
- For marketing purposes, I authorize use of my name as a scholar/alumnus of the Institute and of photographs taken during my participation in Institute activities. I understand that as a part of this program I may participate in the creation of web pages that may contain demographic information about me, and I authorize the release of this information.

As an applicant for Great Plains Leadership Institute, I have read the Scholar Responsibilities above and hereby commit and agree to all of the conditions and requirements of the Institute.

Part 2: Letters of Recommendation

Please send two (2) letters of recommendation in support of your application.

Letter #1:

From the Applicant's supervisor or person to whom Applicant is primarily accountable.

This letter should address the following qualities of the applicant in the context of leadership:

- Character, sense of vision and purpose
- Potential to positively impact the health and well-being of his/her community
- Potential to contribute to the leadership institute learning community

AND

Should include the following supervisor agreements. (Copy and paste them in there!)

- I will allow the applicant to take time off from regularly assigned duties to participate in all required activities of the year-long Institute. (The supervisor and applicant will agree on how to account for the excused time.)
- I understand that the $2,950 fee for Great Plains Leadership Institute attendance is the responsibility of the applicant, and I will support their efforts to secure the fee for her/his participation in the Institute.
- I understand that, there will be no refund of the applicant fees after September 1.
- I will support the applicant's use of newly learned/developed knowledge, skills, attitudes, and competencies in her/his work.

Letter #2:

One additional letter from a colleague of the applicant's choosing.

This letter should address the following qualities of the applicant in the context of leadership:

- Character, sense of vision and purpose
- Potential to positively impact the health and well-being of his/her community
- Potential to contribute to the leadership institute learning community
