

Great Plains Public Health Training Center Registration Process

1. Locate and click on the registration process link on the Online Education and Training Page

The Great Plains Public Health Training Center

The Great Plains PHTC is a Health Resources and Services Administration(HRSA)-funded Public Health Training Center (PHTC). PHTCs are partnerships between accredited schools of public health, related academic institutions and public health agencies and organizations. The PHTC Program is designed to improve the Nation's public health system by strengthening the technical, scientific, managerial, and leadership competence of current and future public health professionals.

If this is your first time using the GPPHTC distance learning site please complete the registration process. After registering and before enrolling in any online professional education opportunities we ask that you complete the following survey.
