

Financial Aid Federal Shopping Sheet

The University of Nebraska Medical Center is providing you a shopping sheet as part of the Principles of Excellence, a presidential directive for the U.S. Departments of Defense, Veterans Affairs, and Education.

The Financial Aid Federal Shopping Sheet is a consumer tool developed by the U.S. Department of Education for prospective students to compare the estimated costs of colleges and the types and amounts of aid available. The costs listed are subject to change and aid is contingent upon the student meeting all eligibility requirements. The shopping sheet is not meant to replace the award notification that UNMC provides. Instead, it is a tool whereby prospective students are provided a clear, direct comparison between participating schools as they make a college choice.

Below is an annotated Shopping Sheet, providing information for each section of the Shopping Sheet.

If you have not yet applied for federal aid, and want to be considered, please submit your FAFSA to University of Nebraska Medical Center as soon as possible. If you have submitted a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and have completed the application process, follow the process below to access your personalized Shopping Sheet.

Step 1: Log into MyRecords with your UNMC ID and Password

Step 2: Click on “Financial Aid” in the menu at the top

Step 3: In the right side menu, click on “View Shopping Sheet”
