

Surgery Grand Rounds Daniel M. Miller Distinguished Surgical Oncology Lectureship

STATE OF THE ART THYROID INTERVENTION

Jonathon O. Russell, MD, FACS;

Associate Professor of Otolaryngology – Head and Neck Surgery, Chief of the Division of Head and Neck Endocrine Surgery; Johns Hopkins Medicine; Baltimore, MD

Dr Jonathon O. Russell is the Director of Head and Neck Endocrine Surgery at Johns Hopkins in Baltimore, MD, and is the Director of the Multi-Disciplinary Thyroid Tumor Center at Johns Hopkins. Additionally, he is the Chair of the Publications Committee for the American Thyroid Association and Chair of the Technology Subcommittee for the Endocrine Section of the American Head and Neck Society. He also leads a busy surgical practice and research team. In these roles, he explores and evaluates novel techniques and technologies designed to improve outcomes for patients undergoing intervention for thyroid and parathyroid pathology, including radiofrequency ablation (RFA) and remote access thyroidectomy (such as transoral thyroidectomy).
